St Catz Advanced Studies Seminars

This is the second St Catz Advanced Studies Seminar. We will welcome feedback as well as ideas for possible future events. There are no restrictions on topics within the overall aim of providing a forum for cross-disciplinary discussion and development of ideas in cutting edge areas of R&D in health and social care

Funding and Accommodation: the seminars are fully funded for hospitality on the day (generously provided by the Laces Trust) but we have no funding for travel or overnight expenses. St Catherine's College are able to offer accommodation but this has to be arranged directly between delegates and the College Conference Office and is subject to availability (details from Helena Fox who will liaise with St Catherine's for email details for accommodation. Please note that as this is term time, rooms may not be in the college
